UNTIL 5 NOVEMBER

> EXHIBITION
Fragile Polar Worlds
From the floating sea ice and polar bears of the north, to the emperor penguins and vast ice deserts of the south, this exhibition features the iconic photography of Greg Lecoeur, portraying the incredible biodiversity to be found in the Arctic and Antarctic regions, both essential to the health and balance of our planet. Against a backdrop of breathtaking giant decors, Fragile Polar Worlds aims to document, inspire, and raise awareness about the important of protecting our oceans. Organised in collaboration with the Oceanographic Institute of Monaco.

UNTIL 15 OCTOBER

> EXHIBITION
Pablo Picasso and Antiquity
new exhibition at the Prince's Palace, held as part of the international Picasso Celebration 1973-2023, a collaboration marking the 50th anniversary of the Spanish artist’s death. The works displayed are from the Fundación Almine y Bernard Ruiz-Picasso (FABA), and the Nahmad collection. Visitors will gain fascinating insights into the influence of Ancient Greek and Roman cultural on the painter’s work.

> EXHIBITION
Santo Sospir
Mauro Restiffe / Jean Cocteau
The Nouveau Musée National de Monaco presents Santo Sospir, an exhibition by the artist Mauro Restiffe, inspired by the house occupied and decorated by Jean Cocteau in Saint-jean Cap-Ferrat between 1950 and 1962. This silent conversation, orchestrated by Restiffe in the Villa Sauber, is like a cinematographic montage that alternates long shots and close-ups, monumental prints and smaller formats, fostering an embodied vision of the tattooed villa, where a (faceless) self-portrait of the author appears.

Carnaval Party
In this children’s show from the imagination of Edna Stern and Tatiana Svetlova, the young spectators are transported to the enchanting musical world of Robert Schumann through his famous work, Carnaval Op. 9. With the combined talents of Stern on the piano and the poetry of Svetlova, the experience is illustrated by the animations of sand artist Ekaterina Barsukova. The audience meets characters from the Commedia dell’Arte and the world of Schumann, including his alter ego Florestan and beloved Clara Wieck. The show aims to introduce children to classical music in a way that captures their imagination and teaches them an appreciation for the theatre.
